

Drafting a Beloved Charter

- Look up Bible verses that are expressive for you of the way God values our lives. You may wish to slowly read over the Scriptures on the following pages—circle any phrases that really jump out at you or speak to you deeply. Or, if there are other verses that remind you of the way God sees you, write those down as well.
- Arrange those verses into a meaningful personal charter that expresses the things God is saying directly to you about your belovedness. (You'll find some examples on page 2 of this document.)
- The very first word of your charter should be your own name, so that the entire thing is addressed to you.
- You'll need to do some careful translation with any passages that are not already phrased as direct address from God ... i.e., you might translate the first portion of John 3:16 into: "For I so loved you that I sent you my only beloved son ...".
- Don't try to put every single meaningful idea into the charter, just the words from God you are currently finding the most compelling. Your whole charter will likely be 4-6 sentences. If you find this exercise helpful, you can always revise your charter over time as different verses attract your attention.
- Imagine God speaking these words to you. Ask the Holy Spirit to press home the message of your own belovedness. Notice your own inner responses (including places you feel resistant) and share them with God.
- As you become increasingly convinced of your own belovedness, ask God to show the belovedness of everyone else you encounter as well. Practice mentally applying your Beloved Charter not only to yourself, but also to each person you encounter.

Example: Trevor Hudson's Beloved Charter

Trevor, you are my beloved child in whom I delight. You did not choose Me but I chose you. You are my friend. I formed your inward parts and knitted you together in your mother's womb. You are fearfully and wonderfully made, made a little lower than the angels, and crowned with glory and honor. You have been created in Christ Jesus for good works which I have already prepared to be your way of life. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you, and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned and the flame shall not consume you. You are precious in my sight, and honored, and I love you. I know all your longings; your sighing is not hidden from Me. Nothing will ever be able to separate you from my love in Christ Jesus, your Lord. Abide in my love.

Example: Henri Nouwen's Beloved Charter

I have called you by name, from the very beginning. You are mine and I am yours. You are my Beloved, on you my favor rests. I have molded you in the depths on the earth and knit you together in your mother's womb. I have carved you in the palms of my hands and hidden you in the shadow of my embrace. I look at you with infinite tenderness and care for you with care more intimate than that of a mother for her child. I have counted every hair on your head and guided you at every step. Wherever you go, I go with you, and wherever you rest, I keep watch. I will give you food that will satisfy all your hunger and drink that will quench all your thirst. I will not hide my face from you. You know me as your own as I know you as my own. You belong to me. ... Nothing will ever separate you from my love.

Example: Jennifer H's Beloved Charter

Jennifer, my dear, from the foundations of the earth I knew you. I formed you and set you apart to do good works. I qualified you for this work of ministry and have given you every good and perfect gift to complete it. I go before and prepare the way. Come and follow Me! I delight in you. You are mine. I rejoice over you with singing and call you my own. Abide in me and I in you and you will bear much fruit. Rest in Me. Nothing can separate you from my love. I cover you, watch over you, protect, and guide you. I love you, my daughter and my bride. All I have is yours and you are mine.

Psalm 139:13-16 ESV

For you formed my inward parts; you knitted me together in my mother's womb. I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well. Your eyes saw my unformed substance; in your book were written, every one of them, the days that were formed for me, when as yet there was none of them.

But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. Are you not of more value than they? And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life? And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. ...
