

Scripture: Psalm 3 (NIV, NIV84)

A psalm of David. When he fled from his son Absalom.

1 O Lord, how many are my foes! How many rise up against me!

2 Many are saying of me, "God will not deliver him." Selah

3 But you, O Lord, are a shield around me, my glory, and the One who lifts my head high.

4 I cry out loud to the Lord, and he answers me from his holy mountain. Selah

5 I lie down and sleep; I wake again, because the Lord sustains me.

6 I will not fear the tens of thousands drawn up against me on every side.

7 Arise, O Lord! Deliver me, O my God! Strike all my enemies on the jaw; break the teeth of the wicked.

8 From the Lord comes deliverance. May your blessing be on your people. Selah

Prompts: Use Psalm 3 as a template to journal or pray quietly.

- "A Psalm of (your name). When I..." Identify a situation in your life that is troubling you.
- "O Lord, how many are my foes..." Describe your struggle or conflict:
- "Many are saying of me..." Describe the criticisms that other people, Satan or your own internal critic are judging you with.
- "But you, O Lord, are a shield around me, my glory, and the One who lifts my head high." Picture the Spirit of Christ surrounding you to protect you.

- “I cry out loud to the Lord, and he answers me...” Give thanks to God for the good and redemptive things he’s doing for in the spiritual reality of His Kingdom.
- “I lie down and sleep... I will not fear...” Pray to trust God for peace and protection.
- “Arise, O Lord!... Strike all my enemies...” Tell God, the Righteous Judge and your Deliverer, your feelings of anger or hurt and what you want you want him to do.
- “From the Lord comes deliverance. May your blessing be upon...” Ask for God’s blessing for you, loved ones, and even the people troubling you.
